

A.S. 2025/2026

Disciplina: Lingua Inglese

Docente: Bruno Giovanna

Classe: 3 B LES

CONTENUTI SVOLTI

Libro di testo: Patrizia Revellino, Giovanna Schinardi, Emilie Tellier Step into Social Studies: Cross -curricular paths for social science students. Zanichelli

Unit 5: School and Education

- A brief history of education in England
- The British school system
- The American School system

Unit 11: Anthropology

- Anthropology: the science that studies the origins of humankind
- What is Anthropology?
- The birth of Anthropology
- Anthropological theories and approaches
- Anthropological research
- Language and culture
- Language and dialects

Unit 4: Immigration and integration

- Migration and language contact
- The spread of English
- Migration in UK

Unit 14: English Literature at a Glance

- Old English: The evolution of the Language and the society
- Literary genres and the The Epic Poem
- “Beowulf”: plot, characters and main themes
- Reading and Analysis of Beowulf’s funeral (lines 3137-3149)

- Middle English: The language and the Middle Age society
- Geoffrey Chaucer and “The Canterbury Tales”: plot, characters and main themes
- Analysis of the first lines of the Prologue “Springtime” (lines 1-28)
- Modern English: English Renaissance
- Henry VIII and Elizabeth I
- The Golden Age and Elizabethan Theatre
- William Shakespeare:
- Shakespeare’s sonnets: n. 18 “Shall I compare”, n. 131 “My Mistress Eyes”
- Shakespeare’s plays: most important themes
- Romeo and Juliet: main themes, characters and plot.

Citizenship:

Privacy and Security

- Have you ever thought to the concepts of privacy, identity management and cyber security?
- Privacy and protection: Two sides of the same coin
- My privacy and yours

Gli alunni

Il Docente
